PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT
AS TO LIABILITY AND PARTIAL DAMAGES

COMES NOW the Plaintiff, Lenzie Gill, by and through his undersigned counsel, and respectfully moves the Court for the entry of partial summary against Defendant Progressive Direct Insurance Company¹ as to liability and partial damages on Counts I - Breach of Contract and II - Bad Faith and as grounds therefore would show as follows:

This motion is submitted upon the following:

- A. The pleadings in this cause, including all exhibits to said pleadings;
- B. Exhibit 1 – Affidavit of Plaintiff Lenzie Gill;
- C. Exhibit 1A – Policy of insurance issued to Plaintiff by Defendant;
- D. Exhibit 1B – Estimate for repairs provided to Plaintiff by Defendant; &
- E. Summary of Undisputed Facts and Argument.

I. Statement of Undisputed Facts

1. Plaintiff Lenzie Gill (hereinafter referred to as “Gill”) is over the age of nineteen (19) years and is a permanent resident of Montgomery County, State of Alabama. (see Complaint, ¶1).

2. Defendant Progressive Direct Insurance Company (hereinafter referred to as “Progressive”) is a foreign corporation doing business by agent in Montgomery County, State of Alabama, at all times mentioned herein. (see Complaint, ¶2).

3. On October 27, 2006, the awning on Gill’s motor home was damaged by bad weather. (see Exhibit 1- Affidavit of Gill; & Answer of Defendant, Progressive Direct Insurance Company, Third Defense).

4. At the time of the damage, Gill’s motor home was covered by an Alabama Motor Home Policy of Insurance issued by Progressive, which provided, inter alia, comprehensive coverage for “Agreed Value $16,500” with a deductible of $500.00. (see Exhibits 1-Affidavit of Gill; 1A-policy of insurance issued by Progressive; & Answer of Defendant, Progressive Direct Insurance Company, Second Defense).

5. In relevant part, the policy of insurance reads as follows: (see Exhibits 1-Affidavit of Gill; & 1A-policy of insurance issued by Progressive, pp. 28-29).

“INSURING AGREEMENT – AGREED VALUE COVERAGE

If you purchase Agreed Value Coverage under this Part IV for a covered vehicle, then subsection 1 of the Limits of Liability provision under this part IV shall not apply and the following provision shall apply to a loss to that covered vehicle:

1. The limit of liability for a loss to a covered vehicle for which Agreed Value Coverage was purchased is as follows:
 - a. for a total loss to a covered vehicle which has an agreed value supported by the proper documentation, our limit of liability is the agreed value, reduced by its salvage value if you or the owner retain the salvage; and
 - b. for a loss other than a total loss to a covered vehicle, or for a total loss where the agreed value is not supported by proper documentation, our limit of liability is the lower of:
 - (i) the actual cash value of the stolen or damaged property at the time of the loss, reduced by:
 - (a) the applicable deductible as shown on the Declarations Page; and
 - (b) its salvage value if you or the owner retain the salvage;

- (ii) the amount necessary to replace the stolen or damaged property, reduced by:
 - (a) the applicable deductible as shown on the Declarations Page; and
 - (b) its salvage value if you or the owner retain the salvage;
- (iii) the amount necessary to repair the stolen or damaged property to its pre-loss condition, reduced by the applicable deductible as shown on the Declarations Page; or
- (iv) the agreed value, reduced by the salvage value of the covered vehicle if you or the owner retain the salvage.”

6. Progressive received notice of the wind damage claim from Gill on October 28, 2006. (see Exhibit 1-Gill Affidavit; & Answer of Defendant, Progressive Direct Insurance Company, Third Defense).

7. Progressive inspected the motor home on October 30, 2006. (see Answer of Defendant, Progressive Direct Insurance Company, Third Defense).

8. Defendant adjusted Plaintiff’s claim for the damaged awning as a replacement cost claim pursuant to 1b(ii) above, and determined the total claim to be valued at $927.80. (see Exhibit 1-Gill Affidavit; & Exhibit 1B-estimate provided to Gill by Progressive).

9. However, in addition to deducting “the applicable deductible as shown on the Declarations Page”, in the amount of $500.00, as permitted by the policy, thereby leaving the sum of $427.80 owed to Gill, Progressive further deducted a sum for “Betterment”, or wear and tear, a deduction not permitted by the insurance policy in determining that Gill was owed no money on the claim. (see Exhibits 1-Gill Affidavit; 1A-policy of insurance issued to Gill by Progressive; & 1B-estimate provided to Gill by Progressive).

10. Progressive denied Gill’s claim on the basis that the cost of repairs did not exceed the policy deductible for comprehensive losses, and the depreciation or betterment amount, for the damage to the awning. (see Exhibit 1; & Answer of Defendant, Progressive Direct Insurance Company, Third Defense).

11. Gill filed the present action in the Circuit Court of Montgomery County, Alabama on December 1, 2006, asserting claims for Breach of Contract (Count I) and Bad Faith (Count II). (see court file).

12. Progressive filed its Answer, and Notice of Removal to this Court, on December 22, 2006. (see court file).

III. Summary Judgment Standard

A summary judgment is appropriate where there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Fed.R.Civ.P. 56(c). In reviewing the motion, the evidence and all factual inferences are viewed in a light most favorable to the non-moving party, and all reasonable doubts about the facts are resolved in favor of the non-movant. Johnson v. Bd. Of Regents, 263 F.3d 1234, 1243 (11th Cir. 2001). “The plain language of Rule 56(c) mandates the entry of summary judgment . . . against a party who fails to make a showing sufficient to establish the existence of an element essential to that party’s case, and on which that party will bear the burden of proof a trial.” Johnson, 63 F.3d at 1243. (quoting Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 322-323, 106 S.Ct. 2548, 2552-53, 91 L.Ed.2d 265 (1986)). That is, “[i]f the non-moving party fails to make a sufficient showing on an essential element of [his] case with respect to which [he] has the burden of proof, then the court must enter summary judgment for the moving party.” Gonzalez v. Lee County Hous. Auth., 161 F.3d 1290, 1294 (11th Cir. 1998) (quoting Celotex, 477 U.S. at 323, 106 S.Ct. at 2552).

Argument

Breach of Contract

Count I of Gill’s Complaint asserts a claim for Breach of Contract.

This claim is premised on Gill’s contention that Progressive breached the relevant insurance contract in denying payment on his claim for the damaged awning after improperly deducting a sum for wear and tear (betterment) from the sum owed Gill, a deduction not permitted by the subject insurance policy. (see Complaint, Count I-Breach of Contract).

In order to prevail on the breach of contract claim, Gill must establish:

- (1) the existence of a valid contract between the parties;
- (2) Plaintiff's performance under the contract;
- (3) Defendant's breach, or failure to perform under the contract; &
- (4) damages sustained as a result of Defendant's nonperformance.

see Anderson v. Anderson, 2004 WL 2201250 (Ala.Civ.App. 2004).

As shown above, a valid contract clearly exists between the parties – the contract of insurance. (see Exhibits 1-Gill Affidavit; 1A-policy of insurance; & Answer of Defendant, Progressive Direct Insurance Company, Second Defense). Gill performed under the contract in paying his premiums and the contract of insurance was in-effect on the date of the loss – the date the date the awning was damaged. (see Exhibit 1; & Answer of Defendant, Progressive Direct Insurance Company, Second Defense).

Progressive's breach of the contractual agreement centers around the deduction of the sum of $575.85, for "Betterment" or wear and tear, from the sum due Gill. (see Exhibit 1-Gill Affidavit; & 1B-estimate provided to Gill by Progressive). Progressive contends this deduction was proper (see Answer of Defendant, Progressive Direct Insurance Company, Fourth Defense), while Gill contends the deduction was improper.

As set forth above, it is undisputed that Gill had "Agreed Value Coverage" on his "covered vehicle". The policy specifically states that "[i]f you purchase Agreed Value Coverage under this Part IV for a covered vehicle, then subsection 1 of the Limits of Liability provision under this part IV shall not apply." (see Exhibit 1A-policy of insurance, p. 28). It is further undisputed that Gill's claim was for a "loss other than a total loss". As such, Gill's claim was to be adjusted under one of the methods set forth under ¶1b. of Agreed Value Coverage. (see Exhibit 1A-policy of insurance, pp. 28-29). Progressive chose to adjust the claim on a replacement cost basis and determined the replacement cost to be $927.80. (see Exhibit 1B- estimate provided to Gill by Progressive). Under Agreed Value Coverage, Progressive's limit of liability, as set forth as ¶1b(ii), was as follows:

- “(ii) the amount necessary to replace the stolen or damaged property, reduced by:
 - (a) the applicable deductible as shown on the Declarations Page; and
 - (b) its salvage value if you or the owner retain the salvage;”

Contrary to Progressive's contention, “Betterment” or wear and tear, is clearly not a permissible deduction under ¶1b(ii). In-fact, with Agreed Value Coverage, under no scenario is “Betterment” or wear and tear ever taken into consideration, as evidenced by the policy itself, regardless of the manner in which the claim is adjusted. (see Exhibit 1A-policy of insurance, pp. 28-29). As such, Progressive's actions in deducting for “Betterment” or wear and tear, and in denying Gill's claim based on this deduction, constitutes a breach of contract.

As a result of the breach, Gill was denied monies contractually owed to him in the amount of $427.80. (see Exhibit 1-Gill Affidavit). This sum represents the monies owed to Gill after deducting the only permissible deduction – Gill's $500.00 deductible, from the claim totaling $927.80.

Accordingly, Gill is entitled to a partial summary judgment against Progressive as to liability on the Breach of Contract Claim and partial damages in the sum of $427.80.

Bad Faith

Count II of Gill's Complaint asserts a claim for Bad Faith.

This claim is premised on Gill's contention that Progressive acted in bad faith in denying payment on his claim after improperly deducting a sum for “Betterment” or wear and tear, a deduction not permitted by the insurance policy, as established above.

In National Security Fire & Casualty Co. v. Bowen, 417 So.2d 179 (Ala. 1982), the Alabama Supreme Court set out the standard for bad faith claims:

"An insurer is liable for its refusal to pay a direct claim when there is no lawful basis for the refusal coupled with actual knowledge of that fact. No lawful basis means that the insurer lacks a legitimate or arguable reason for failing to pay the claim. When a claim is fairly debatable the insurer is entitled to debate it, whether the debate concerns a matter of fact or law."

The plaintiff in a bad faith refusal case has the burden of proving:

- (1) an insurance contract between the parties and a breach thereof by the defendant;
- (2) an intentional refusal to pay the insured's claim;
- (3) the absence of any reasonably legitimate or arguable reason for that refusal (the absence of a debatable reason);
- (4) the insurer's actual knowledge of the absence of any legitimate or arguable reason;
- (5) if the intentional failure to determine the existence of a lawful basis is relied upon, the plaintiff must prove the insurer's intentional failure to determine whether there is a legitimate or arguable reason to refuse to pay the claim.

Id.

As shown above, an enforceable contract existed between Gill and Progressive mandating payment on Gill's insurance claim in the amount of $427.80. Progressive had actual knowledge of the wrongfulness of its actions in that its actions are in direct conflict with the express terms and conditions of the insurance contract. Progressive can come forth with no evidence establishing a legitimate or arguable basis for its intentional refusal to pay Gill's claim.

Accordingly, Gill is entitled to a partial summary judgment against Progressive as to liability on the Bad Faith claim and partial damages in the sum of $427.80.

CONCLUSION

Based upon the undisputed evidence in this cause, partial summary judgment is due to be granted in Gill's favor as to Progressive's liability on Counts I – Breach of Contract and II – Bad Faith; and for partial damages in the sum of $427.80, for the reasons set forth herein.

STATE OF ALABAMA)

COUNTY OF MONTGOMERY)

A F F I D A V I T

Personally before me, the undersigned Notary Public in and for said County, appeared Lenzie Gill, who being first duly sworn deposes and says:

My name is Lenzie Gill. I am over the age of 19 and a permanent resident of Montgomery County, State of Alabama. I am aware that this affidavit will be used in support of my Motion for Partial Summary Judgment as to Liability and Partial Damages, in the case styled: Lenzie Gill v. Progressive Direct Insurance Company (hereinafter referred to as "Progressive"), – civil action number 2:06cv1151-MHT, pending in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Alabama, Northern Division. I have personal knowledge of the matters set forth herein.

On October 27, 2006, the awning on my motor home was damaged by bad weather. At the time of the damage, my motor home was covered by an Alabama Motor Home Policy of insurance issued by Progressive. I had paid my premiums and the policy was in effect on the date the awning was damaged. I have reviewed my policy and the copy attached hereto as Exhibit 1A is a true and accurate copy of my policy of insurance with Progressive on the date my awning was damaged.

I notified Progressive on October 28, 2006, of the damage to my motor home. Progressive adjusted my claim on a replacement cost basis and determined that I was owed the sum of $927.80. However, in addition to deducting my deductible of $500.00 from this sum, which was permitted by the policy, thereby leaving the sum of $427.80 payable to me on the claim, Progressive further deducted a sum for "Betterment" or wear and tear, a deduction not permitted by the policy in determining that I was owed no money on my claim. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1B is a true and correct copy of the estimate provided to me by Progressive reflecting that I was owed no money on my claim.

"EXHIBIT 1"

As a result of Progressive’s actions, I did not receive the sum of $427.80, monies to which I was entitled under my policy of insurance with Progressive.

COVERAGE CHANGES

If we make a change which broadens a coverage you have under this edition of your policy, without harm, sickness, or disease. "Bodily injury" does not include any sickness or disease that is transmitted by an insured person through personal or sexual contact.

3. "Business" includes a trade, profession, or occupation.

- (i) you acquire the vehicle during the policy period shown on the Declarations Page;

- (ii) we insure all vehicles owned by you; and

- (iii) no other insurance policy provides coverage for that vehicle.

If we provide coverage for a vehicle you acquire in addition to any vehicle shown on the Declarations Page, we will provide the broadest coverage, other than Total Loss Replacement/Purchase Price Coverage or Agreed Value Coverage, which we provide for any vehicle shown on the Declarations Page. We will provide that coverage for a period of thirty (30) days after you become the owner. We will not provide coverage after this thirty (30) day period, unless within this period you ask us to insure the additional vehicle. If the broadest coverage is Total Loss Replacement/Purchase Price Coverage or Agreed Value Coverage, we will provide basic Comprehensive and Collision Coverage for the additional vehicle instead of these coverages. If you add any coverage to this policy or increase your limits, these changes to your policy will not become effective until after you ask us to add the coverage or increase your limits; and

- (ii) the vehicle that you acquire replaces one shown on the Declarations Page; and
- (iii) no other insurance policy provides coverage for that vehicle.
- If the vehicle that you acquire replaces one shown on the Declarations Page, it will have the same coverage, other than Total Loss Replacement/Purchase Price Coverage or Agreed Value Coverage, as the vehicle it replaces. If the replaced vehicle had Total Loss Replacement/Purchase Price Coverage or Agreed Value Coverage, we will provide basic Comprehensive and Collision Coverage for the replacement vehicle instead of these coverages. You must ask us to insure a replacement vehicle within thirty (30) days after you become the owner if you want to continue any coverage you had under Part IV - Damage To A Vehicle.
